Under new EPA rules that go into effect April 2010, contactors performing renovation, repair and painting projects that disturb lead-based paint in homes, child care facilities and schools built before 1978 must be certified and must follow specific work practices to minimize occupants' exposure to lead hazards.

All individuals performing activities that disturb painted surfaces must be certified renovators or have been trained by a certified renovator. A certified renovator must also be assigned to each renovation and perform all the EPA-mandated responsibilities of a certified renovator.

Fines for non-compliance are anticipated to be $32,000 per occurrence.
