LANNY TILLERY, CGA, CGP, CAPS INDUCTED INTO NAHB SOCIETY OF HONORED ASSOCIATES

March 29, 2010 – To honor his commitment to the building industry, Lanny Tillery, CGA, CGP, CAPS of Whirlpool Corporation in Benton, Ark. was recently inducted into the Society of Honored Associates of the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB). Tillery was inducted at the Associates Awards Breakfast on Jan. 20 at the International Builders' Show in Las Vegas. NAHB Chairman of the Board Joe Robson, a home builder from Tulsa, Okla., presented the award to Tillery, who was nominated by the Arkansas Home Builders Association.

"The depth and breadth of Lanny Tillery's commitment to the home building industry is exceptional," said Keith Wingfield, president of the Home Builders Association of Greater Little Rock. "His service on the local, state and national levels spans an inspiring and critically important range of issue areas including financial support and legislative initiatives."

Induction into the Society of Honored Associates is an honor reserved for associate members recognized for consistently exemplary association service, outstanding contributions on the local, state and national levels of the home building industry, and civic responsibility. Associate members represent a diverse group of occupations involved in the home building industry, including subcontractors, utilities, title companies, interior designers, building material manufacturers and dealers and real estate agents, among others.

Tillery is an active member at the Home Builders Association of Greater Little Rock, where he serves as part of the Associate Advisory Council as a life director. Since becoming a member in 1991, he has chaired or been a contributing member to more than 30 committees or task forces.

Tillery is active in his state association as well. He has sat on the Arkansas Home Builders Association (AHBA) Board of Directors for the past 13 years as well as the AHBA Executive Committee for the past 12 years. He has been a member of or chaired committees that oversee duties including membership, finances, education, awards and recreation. He also has contributed to the Arkansas HomeBuilder Magazine twice a month about associates' activities throughout the state.

Tillery is a Life Director for the past 10 years for the National Association of Home Builders. In 2010 he was appointed to chair the Associates Advisory Council.
